M/s.Plastrulon Processors Ltd.
and another.

... Petitioner.

V/s.

Shri Mangesh Jaywant Waingankar
and another.

... Respondents.

J.P.Cama, senior counsel i/b. N.B.Chhatre for the petitioners.

N.M.Ganguli for the respondents.

CORAM: V.C.DAGA, J.

DATED: 13th March 2006.

P.C.:

. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners.

. Perused petition.

3. During the course of hearing, Mr.Cama, learned senior counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that without prejudice to the rights of the petitioners; the petitioners would be ready and willing to comply with order dated 13th August, 2003 passed by Second Labour Court, Thane during the pendency of the complaint. He, however, prayed that it should be made clear that this by itself shall not create any equity in favour of the complainant.

4. In this view of the matter, it is necessary to entertain this petition. However, it is made clear that compliance of the order dated 13th August, 2004 by the petitioners shall be without prejudice to their rights and shall not create any equity in favour of either of the parties.

5. Petition stands disposed of in terms of this order with no order as to costs.
